F043583 In re Artemio A., a Minor

Counsel having failed to request oral argument in the above-entitled case, oral argument is deemed waived in accordance with the provisions of a notice heretofore mailed to counsel and the cause is submitted.

F043583 In re Artemio A., a Minor

Appellant's adjudication of vandalism as alleged in the March petition is affirmed. Appellant's adjudication of vandalism as alleged in the May petition is reversed and the matter is remanded for new proceedings to determine the truth of the allegation of that offense. If the allegation is found true, the disposition previously pronounced shall be reimposed with the following modifications: (1) the marking device condition shall be modified to reflect that appellant is not prohibited from using felt tip pens and other marking devices while at school as directed by, and under the supervision of, school personnel; and (2) the Department of Motor Vehicles shall delay issuing to appellant the privilege to drive for one year, pursuant to Vehicle Code section 13202.67. If the allegation of vandalism contained in the May petition is not sustained, the court shall proceed with new disposition proceedings, in accordance with the views expressed in this opinion. ³
